

Women Surrounding a Godly Man

I awakened at around 4:00 a.m. November 20, 2009. God was speaking to my heart. He had clarified to me His role for me in preparing men for His service. In much of what God has given me Re: Christ centered halfway houses and/or prison units the focus was men. This morning things would be different, God set out to reveal why He said:

"It is not good that man be alone: I will make him an helpmeet for him."
Genesis 2:18

"God was revealing to me the absolute necessity of Godly Women"

God was revealing to me the absolute necessity of Godly women submitting to (i.e. coming up under to lift) a man of God.

In bringing this to my attention God was allowing me to know that in order for a Godly man to be "Revealed", it is imperative that we learn to bless and empower the women in our lives; So that our women might be instruments in the hands of God to assist in the development of Grandfathers, Father, Husbands, Brothers and Sons. This in turn will be the key factor in transforming our women to the mind of God for all of the men in their lives. Pray with me as I seek to open the hearts of our readers to:

1. An helpmeet
2. Women training women
3. Mothers training daughters

The male female relationship has been ordained since the beginning of time. God decided that man needed an helpmeet. I initially looked at the words separately. That is the woman was to aid or help the man as they came together to meet or fulfill Gods need/role for him. I was surprised to find that the Strong's key number for help and meet in genesis 2:18 were the same. It is number 5828 `ezer from 5826; aid: - help. As I recalled at creation there were no children to care for, nor did the woman need to be concerned with cleaning or ironing of clothes. Her sole responsibility consisted of helping her husband to fulfill God's plan for his life.

"But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man...for a man is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man." 1 Corinthians 11:3, 7-9

In order for a man to fulfill his responsibilities towards God our women must come up under them (initially) in prayer. God by His Spirit brought to my mind an incident that occurred around 1977-78 while I was in college. This incident I pray will help you to see more clearly our women's role. As an undergraduate member of Phi Beta Sigma, Fraternity, Inc. at the University of Connecticut, we sponsored a pool party on campus. I had the responsibility of being a lifeguard. As I watched our partygoers, I saw one of my fraternity brothers walking towards the deep end of the pool. He was walking and talking with a young lady whom I believed to be unable to swim. I instinctively never took my eyes off of them as they walked. They stopped beside the diving board above nine feet (9') of water. After a few more moments of talking she jumped into the pool. I said, one thousand one, one thousand two as she sunk like a rock to the bottom of the pool. When I got to her, I saw her arms flailing about frantically as she fought for her life. I went down below her and pushed her by her feet lifting her head above the water. As her head hit the air she stopped fighting and was pulled to safety.

Much like I gave myself to come up under her our women must learn to give themselves and come up under us foremost in prayer. Men today are drowning in a world of sin. We are fighting to get our breath against selling and using drugs and alcohol. We are fighting to get our breath against all kinds of sexual promiscuity and sexual perversions. We are fighting to get our breath against objectifying, abusing and demeaning women. We have our heads below water and are so busy fighting to get our breath that we are not becoming the men of God as determined by God. Our wives, daughters, sisters and mothers must be brought to understand the significance of their roles of submitting, that is coming up under us as men, that we might be lifted up above the world's water level and stop flailing about with our carnal means in a futile attempt to win a spiritual battle. Once our aid comes up under us we will be able to relax and look to the hills from whence cometh our help.

Many times we as men want to take the bull by the horns and dive right in to teach our women God's role for them. The experience of dwelling with my own wife according to knowledge has shown me that many women will resent and therefore reject initial attempts of a man teaching them Godliness. This will in some instances (as in my own) be due to the hurt caused by or in other instances the abuse of a man. You may be that man in one of those instances as well. In other instance she will have been trained in the world's ways of female dominance or bamboozled into believing that she should not feel. Without her knowledge the curse of Genesis 3 would have come into play.

“... and thy desire shall be to thy husband...” Genesis 3:16

That word desire may best be interpreted by a look at Genesis 4:7

"... Sin lieth at the door; and unto thee shall be his desire..." Genesis 4:7

Therein we see that desire is akin to overcoming or taking over; this leaving our wives to want to take over the man's God given role.

Being mindful of this as men we must begin on our knees. God in His infinite wisdom and great mercy has our help built into His word.

"The aged women likewise, that they be in behavior as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; that they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their own husbands, to love their children, to be chaste keepers at home, good obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed." Titus 2:3-5

Check the scripture

1. 1 Corinthians 11:3, 7-9
2. Titus 2:3-5
3. Jeremiah 9:21-22

Just as iron sharpeneth iron.... So does a woman sharpeneth the countenance of another woman! Pray therefore my brothers that God might reveal to your wife that woman or women who might instruct her in the word of God. Sometimes as we dwell according to knowledge we may have to relax, and step back as we continue to learn of God and do His will by loving our wives long enough for God to touch her and bring about a change in her heart. Once our wives come to an understanding of the dire necessity of prayer for their husbands and sons; they will no longer have the non-chalant or even worldly contradictory attitude concerning a woman's role in submitting to or coming up under grandfathers, fathers, husbands, brothers and sons in prayer. They through prayer will come to understand that the very survival of the family depends on their men being able to relax and breathe long enough to stop fighting and start living for God. Now instead of just teaching, a newfound passion to Godly living will push them that they will fall in line with the scripture in Jeremiah

"... O ye women, let your ear receive the word of His mouth, and teach your daughters wailing..." Jeremiah 9:20

Our wives will learn that if she fails to teach with this passion.

"For death is come up into our windows,
and is entered into our palaces, to cut off children from without, and the young men from the streets. Speak, thus saith the Lord, even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them" Jeremiah 9:22-22

In as much as our knees are our starting point; please join me in this prayer that God has impressed upon my heart for our women:

Father, in the name of Jesus we thank you for being the creator of all things. We thank you for single handedly holding all things together by the power of your word. We thank you for being the great and all-powerful I AM. We thank you for looking well beyond our faults and seeing our needs. We thank you for creating us a helpmeet, grandmother, mother, sister and daughter that we might be empowered through their prayer to serve you. Father right now in the name of Jesus breathe on our helpmeet that they might learn to and have a heart to pray for the men in their lives. Breathe on them that they might come up under us in prayer lifting us up to whom you would have us to be. Breathe on them Abba Father that their hearts might be transformed to your will and your mind; that they might be ready willing and committed to serving you in a way that is pleasing in your sight. In Jesus precious name we pray and for His sake and to His glory ... Amen

If no one has told you yet today please let me be the first to say that I love you all and you can't do a thing about it.
