

Healed For a Purpose

Have you rejoiced over this scripture?

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; Isaiah 61:1-2

"Having experienced the downside of life; oh how I long to experience Gods deliverance Gods salvation!"

I sure have. What a feeling to know that God has sent His ministers into the world to fix those of us who are meek, broken hearted, captive, in prison, in mourning or filled with heaviness. Having experienced the downside of life; oh how I long to experience Gods deliverance Gods salvation!

How many of you have been pulled out of the throes of a storm by the written word of God, the preached word or a biblically sound song? Did you rejoice in your healing? Here is the rationale for your healing:

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10

Check the scripture

1. Isaiah 61:1-2
2. Ephesians 2:10
3. Matthew 25

Now that you know that your healing was the process God used to create you to "good works"; let us look again at Isaiah 61.

This time let us look beyond what God has done for us to verse four. It is there that we learn some of the good works we are to do. We are to build old waste, raise former desolations, and repair waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

If that were not enough Matthew 25 adds to our good work list. We must feed the hungry. Give the thirsty drink. Take in the stranger. Clothe the naked. Care for the sick, See about those in prison. We as the delivered must minister to the needs of the people of God. In short we must go back to those who are trapped in the areas from which we have been delivered. We must love our neighbor as God has loved us. Are you healed? Then we need your help. Do you need healing? Then Jesus Christ is your help.

If no one has told you yet today let me be the very first to say that I love you all and you can't do a thing about it.
