

The Least in Your Hands

Scripture Text: 1 Corinthians 12:27
2 Corinthians 5:15-19
1 Peter 3:8-12

Imagine we were born without appendages (no arms or legs). We would be totally dependant upon someone else to feed, clean, clothe, take us to the bathroom and even to wipe us when we are done.

Now imagine you are a caregiver of one without appendages. Would you care for his or her needs? Would you put off helping that person, instead leaving their care to someone else? Would you dare say that what you are charged to do is in Gods hands? 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 make it clear each individual member of the body of Christ is without appendages and as such is completely dependant upon one another.

"For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For the body is not one member, but many. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Corinthians 12:12, 14 & 27

As such we have the awesome responsibility of caring for the needs of "Gods" I say again, "Gods" body. Is that why we are called in Matthew 22:19, Romans 13:10 and 1 Corinthians 13:7 to love?

We all know that Christ cared so much for His body (The church) that He died to save it Romans 5:6 and 8. We are told that we now have an obligation not to put off providing care or as some would say let God have His way.

"And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again." 2 Corinthians 5:15

We are Gods way. We are Gods appendages to His body in this world. We are responsible to reach out and assist those in need. We are Ambassadors charged with acting on Gods behalf as we care for "Gods" body. Being ever mindful that Gods eyes and ears are open to, if and how we maintain His body @12. Maybe that is why James says faith without works is dead James 2:14-20.

Remember that which you have done or neglected to do for the least of these you have done also to God Matthew 25:31-46. For those things reveal the heart. They show the world if the love of Christ is indeed in you

"...Each individual member of the body of Christ... is completely dependant upon one another."

"A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." John 13:34-35

Have you done what the word of God has called you to do in Matthew 25:15-30?

The Least of these are in your hands!!!!
