

What Would You Do

What if you were faced with the choice of giving up years of your life, being isolated from family and friends, being ostracized by society that you might be transformed to whom God would have you to be and that you might be in position to spare someone else from such separation?

What if you would lose out on a good job, a promotion or large financial gain if only you caused hurt to another?

What if your life savings would be lost if you did not sue a brother to recover your own money? What would you do? Do you think you are spiritual? Have you counted the cost of being a Christian? What cross have you borne or will you bear? The word says,

"We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak and not to please ourselves." Romans 15:1

This can sometimes be a painful reality. Yet I am reminded of another segment of scripture.

"Looking unto Jesus the author and the finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross... Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin." Hebrews 12:2-4

Then recall that Jesus having done no wrong bore your infirmities in that Christ was made sin for us and suffered humiliation, cruel beatings and separation from God the Father, all for you and me.

Now think about it again. What would you do? Love covers a multitude of sin.

If no one has told you yet today, let me be the first to say that I love you all and you can't do a thing about it.
